

Growth Group Study Questions

For the week of May 14, 2023

QUICK REVIEW

Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching on "the mind that wins in our relationships", was there anything you heard for the first time, that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

MY EXPERIENCES

1. Have you ever taken a job position that is lower than the one you had before? Share what you had to do to work effectively in this new position.
2. Was there a time, where in your relationships you felt Satan was winning and you acted differently to calm things down and restore peace?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. Read Philippians 2:1-9 and look for words that best describe these verses.
2. One of the words that best describes Philippians 2:1-9 is UNITY. What are some specific examples of how you can work hard to maintain unity?
3. Another word that best describes Philippians 2:1-9 is SELFISHNESS.
 - a. Discuss what it means to be selfish?
 - b. What is one area you tend to struggle with selfishness?
 - c. What can you do this week to put others first in this area?
 - d. Do you ever notice a full trash can or a sink full of dishes and then walk along, hoping that your spouse will see and take care of it first? Write out five specific ways you can look out for others' interests in the coming week.
 - e. What is one way you enjoy other people serving you? What is one way you can serve others in the coming week?
4. Based on the study, what can we learn from Jesus's mindset?

HOMEWORK

This week set up a plan about how to cultivate a mindset that wins for both of you and not just you.
