Epistle

2 Corinthians 5:16-21

<sup>16</sup> So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come:<sup>[a]</sup> The old has gone, the new is here! <sup>18</sup> All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: <sup>19</sup> that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. <sup>20</sup> We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup> God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord,

People: Thanks be to God!

Psalm

Psalm 99

<sup>1</sup> Blessed is the one whose transgressions | are forgiven, whose | sins are covered.

<sup>2</sup> Blessed is the one whose sin the Lord does not | count against them
and in whose spirit is | no deceit.

<sup>3</sup> When I kept silent, my bones was- | ted away
through my groaning | all day long.

<sup>4</sup> For day and night your hand was hea- | vy on me;
my strength was sapped as in the | heat of summer.

<sup>5</sup> Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my i- | niquity.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord."
And you forgave the guilt | of my sin.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore let all the faithful pray to you while you | may be found;
surely the rising of the mighty waters | will not reach them.

<sup>7</sup> You are my hiding place; you will protect | me from trouble and surround me with songs | of deliv'rance.

<sup>8</sup> I will instruct you and teach you in the way | you should go;
I will counsel you with my loving | eye on you.

<sup>10</sup> Many are the woes | of the wicked,
but the Lord's unfailing love surrounds the one who | trusts in him.

<sup>11</sup> Rejoice in the Lord and be | glad, you righteous;
sing, all you who are up- | right in heart!

<sup>D</sup> Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the | Holy Spirit;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever, | A-men.

Holy Gospel

Luke 15:1-3, 13b-32

Leader: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the 15th chapter.

People:
Glo - ry to You, O Lord.

Now the tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus. <sup>2</sup> But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.” <sup>3</sup> Then Jesus told them this parable: <sup>13b</sup> the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. <sup>14</sup> After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15</sup> So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. <sup>16</sup> He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything. <sup>17</sup> “When he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! <sup>18</sup> I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. <sup>19</sup> I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.’ <sup>20</sup> So he got up and went to his father. “But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him. <sup>21</sup> “The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ <sup>22</sup> “But the father said to his servants, ‘Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. <sup>23</sup> Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let’s have a feast and celebrate. <sup>24</sup> For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ So they began to celebrate. <sup>25</sup> “Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup> So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. <sup>27</sup> ‘Your brother has come,’ he replied, ‘and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.’ <sup>28</sup> “The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. <sup>29</sup> But he answered his father, ‘Look! All these years I’ve been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. <sup>30</sup> But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!’ <sup>31</sup> ““My son,’ the father said, ‘you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. <sup>32</sup> But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’”
